Describe a defining community in your life and what it means to you.

2. Write a brief essay in which you respond to the following question. (freshman applicants only): Johns Hopkins offers 49 majors across the schools of Arts & Sciences and Engineering. On Part I of this application, we asked you to identify one or two that you might like to pursue here. Why did you choose the way you did? If you are undecided, why didn't you choose? (If any past courses or academic experiences influenced your decision, you may include them in your essay.)

10. Are you interested in independent learning with a faculty mentor? One of many opportunities for students to engage in hands-on learning at Johns Hopkins, the Woodrow Wilson Undergraduate Research Fellowship is a monetary award of up to $10,000 granted to incoming freshmen in the Krieger School of Arts & Sciences. Learn more about this fellowship in the undergraduate viewbook; to apply, click on apply.jhu.edu/Wilson.

11. We are interested in learning which major or area of study you are most likely to pursue at Johns Hopkins. Please choose from the list below and write your first choice next to number 1. If you have a second interest, indicate it next to number 2. If you are unsure which major you are interested in, indicate as undecided within a particular school or area of study.

PLEASE NOTE this important policy. Students wishing to enroll in the biomedical engineering (BME) major must indicate BME as their first-choice major on this application. Students are admitted specifically into the BME major, based on evaluation of credentials and space available. Students can be admitted to the university without acceptance to the BME major. No separate application is required. Notification of acceptance into the BME major is given at the time of decision notification.*
